

Annotation

In my thesis „The Church – a Moral Conscience of the Society“ I am looking for and consequently offer a possible consensus between the liberal conception of the civil society and the fundamental base of the Church. It works with such conceptions as freedom and conscience and explains them in the light of moral theology. What is conscience for a man let be the church for a society.

Key words:

- church
- conscience
- freedom
- liberalism
- truth