

Abstract

Title: The analysis of the activities of rescue dogs in the Integrated Rescue System.

Objectives: To analyze the frequency of deploying dogs in action under the Integrated Rescue System for the period 2009 to 2011. Describe reasons for Access and failure to deploy dogs in the IRS.

Method: Research of available sources, data collection.

Results: Every year is the use of increasingly cynological pairs. Most service dogs are being used. At the request of debris search requirements are mainly from the Fire and Rescue Service area search by police of the Czech Republic.

Keywords: Integrated Rescue System, dog, debris search, area search.