

Abstract

Title: Relationships between physical education, sport and pupils at the elementary schools

Aims: The master thesis deals with social survey at elementary school. The aims are to find out what relation have children to the physical education at elementary school in Prague 9 and how are they aware of the sport in general.

Methods: In the master thesis was applied method of written questionnaire a method of colloquy. The data were obtained from the written questionnaires and the data were verify by personal colloquy. The data were processed by statistical methods then and the results were made by graphs and by frequency distribution tables.

Results: Results of a written questionnaire showed that the sport over twenty years has changed, but football has traditionally remained in the first place.

Keywords: school physical education, elementary school, sport, survey

August 2011