

Abstract: In the present work we study the existence and properties of solutions of the system of partial differential equations describing steady flow of Newtonian fluid. We consider that this system has anisotropic dissipative potential. We prove existence of weak solutions to this system and its partial $C^{1,\alpha}$ -regularity in 3D and full $C^{1,\alpha}$ -regularity in 2D.