

ANNOTATION

This bachelor work “Value basics Ethics and their confrontation with the value orientation of the young generation“ deals with the motives of introducing Ethics to the elementary school system, its contents, purposes, methods and value basics in the context of the contemporary postmodern society. The focus of this work is description of comparison purposes given by creators of the concept of Ethics with the interpreted data of sociological research focused on the current value orientation of The Czech society.

Keywords: ethics, upbringing, ethic education, value, value orientation, value basics, young generation