

My work deals with the esoteric approaches to contemporary women's spirituality. I mapped the current literature on the history of the esoteric and the Czech media that is dedicated to esoteric. Historically focused literature I used to outline the development of esoteric writing, focusing on the persecution of witches. Field research, I tried to capture the women who are devoted to esoteric, especially the interpretation of cards.