Annotation

The introduction contains basic information about the translated text. The first chapter presents the translation itself and it is followed by the commentary of the translation. The commentary analyzes major difficulties encountered during the process of translation.

Key words: Commented translation, Translation, French, Czech, Cat, Society