

Abstract

Baroque site Skalka near by city Mníšek pod Brdy

This bachelor thesis treats about Baroque site Skalka near by city Mníšek pod Brdy; about his build and destiny from past to present.

First part treats about history of the city Mníšek pod Brdy, site Skalka and consequently about founder Ignác Engel z Engelsflussu and about stock Engel.

Below is briefly life description of countess Benedikta Čejková, which invited Franciscan monks at the Skalka. About these Franciscan monks is treated in self charter. Next part thesis describes the individual objects in site: chapel Sv. Mary Magdalene, monastery, hermitage and fourteen cruciate chapels.

Last part thesis disserts upon destiny site Skalka under rule communist authoritarianism; about buildings destruction by ironstone mining under the Skalka. In the end is mentioned renovation of buildings, this renovation began in nineties twentieth century and takes till today.