

Administration of the City of Rakovnik in the Late Middle Ages

This work deals with the administration of the city of Rakovnik in the Late Middle Ages as it was reflected in contemporary municipal books. The work focuses on development and functioning of the municipal administration in this period from the aspect of existence and activity of authority and officials, and also from the point of individual aspects of the city life, and their control by the municipal authorities.

Keywords: history, Middle Ages, municipal administration, municipal books, the city of Rakovnik