

Abstract

The Bachelor Degree Thesis focuses on activity of church administration in range of deanery of Brdy, analysing sources, especially registers of central church administration. Focuses principally on constitution of priests to church office, patrons of single parishes, belongings of churches and control role of archdeacon of Prague, above all in period of 2nd half of 14th century and beginning of 15th century.

Key words: deanery of Brdy, archdeacon, patronage, parish priest, church administration