

ABSTRACT

The bachelor thesis is focused on improving the quality of life of people with mental disabilities at schools and community organizations. It consists of theoretical and practical parts. The theoretical part contains an explanation of mental retardation, socialization of people with mental disabilities, the area of education, social security for people with mental disabilities. The practical part is about activities of basic practical and special schools in the educational process and activities of charitable organizations.

Key words: mental retardation, person with mental disability, quality of life, social sphere, education, charitable organization