

Abstract:

The project deals with development of school education in the vicinity of the town of Svitavy, Czech Republic, populated by both the Czech and German nations between 1918 and 1938. It is focused on changes in traditional schools as well as on founding new ones for ethnic.