Abstract (in English):

The topic of the thesis is behaviour disorders - especially aggression and aggressiveness. There are causes of problematic behaviour and possibilities of their positive solution described in the thesis. The thesis also deals with causes and symptoms of behaviour disorders and with possibilities of their diagnostics. It focuses on victimization that represents a serious problem of current school. The last part deals with prevention and elimination of behaviour disorders and it also focuses on possibilities of music therapy.