

ABSTRACT

Klára Černá: Man and his Dog, Dog and its Man

Charles University in Prague, Faculty of Arts, Department of Sociology

Theses, 76 pages, 2013

Work, focused on the role of dog in human relationships. The first part provides an introduction to the problem and its historical, ethological, cultural and biopsychological consequences to human beings.

The second part - research, used grounded theory. Focused is on young adults in Prague.

The aim is to reveal the basic forms of implications of cohabitation with dog on interpersonal relationships.

Keywords

Human-animal studies; dog; grounded theory; interpersonal relationships; animal and society