This bachelor thesis focuses on the project of Three Gorges Dam. It further describes and analyses the official Chinese views and its problems. The first part of the thesis focuses on the general characteristics of the project, its role in national economy and energetics. The second part of the thesis analyses how the official Chinese views are reflected in the electronic version of newspaper articles. The main emphasis is the evolution of the Chinese point of view and the contrast of that opinion with the rest of the world which is shown by articles published in well-known Western daily newspapers like "The Washington Post", "The Guardian" and "The New York Times".
