

Anotation

The thesis is focused on leisure time and activities for children during the summer holidays. Based on the analysis of the specific camp - NOO Bulovka are formulated basic rules about the requirements of a good camp. At the same time are compared different components of the program including evaluation. In addition to working with literature and other sources the author used personal experience and the results of his observation.

Key words

leisure time, leisure time education, children's summer camp, NOO Bulovka, analysis of summer camp program