

Abstract

The Bachelor thesis is about aspects of computer use by preschool age child. It is explained the major role of the family and the nursery in relation to the child and the use of computer by child of preschool age. In the research part are collected opinions and attitudes of parents and nursery teachers on this issue. Selected results on introduction children with the basics of safe use of computers at home and at the nursery are confronted with the recommendation of best practices. The objective of this thesis is to introduce the use of computer child of preschool age, from the parents' perspective and teachers of the nursery. It is necessary to notify the attendant risks and to show the benefits of using computers by pre-school children.

KeyWords

preschool age child, computer, security, internet, nursery, computer use