

The Diploma thesis „The importance and responsibilities of the Curator for youth in the Capital City of Prague“ focuses on explaining of work of curators for youth, his responsibilities and work with institutions, which cooperate with curators. Whole topic is hugely supported by case studies of clients. This work consists of introduction which characterizes the aim of the thesis. Next part contains basic terms and describes activity of the curator for youth. Diploma thesis also focuses on institutions, responsibilities and difficulties of work of curator for youth.

Next part is about cases. This part consists of case studies of clients, these case studies are from clients of department of social prevention from curators for youth of Prague 10. Next part is The Discussion, which compares differences between theory and practise.

This Diploma thesis contributes to understanding the work of curators for youth.