

ABSTRACT

TITLE:

Inheritance proceedings in the Czech republic and Germany

AUTHOR:

Mgr. Tomáš Procházka

DEPARTMENT:

Civil law

SUPERVISOR:

Doc. JUDr. Alena Macková, Ph.D

ABSTRACT:

This thesis is about detailed legal analysis of the probate proceedings in the Czech republic and Germany. The Thesis is examines current issues of succession and diversity of both countries. The conclusion and contribution thesis is acquisition knowledge based on the results carried out research methods. This thesis is clearly divided into twelve chapters. In conclusion summarizes the problems identified in the inheritance of both countries, and proposed suggestions de lege ferenda. Suggestions lead to consider not only the inadequacy of existing regulations, but also the possibility of changes aimed at the uplift of our legislation to the level of other major European codes. This thesis is working with law of the Czech republic and Germany, professional books and journals of both countries, case law and jurisprudence even older which is used today.

KEYWORDS:

Death, Inheritance proceedings, Liquidation, Law court, Notary,