

Abstract: The bachelor work "History of Primary School Davle" is about the history of primary education in this community.

This work is focused in education in Davle from 1778 till nowadays. It deals with the history the czech educational system and the town Davle, as well as it informs about the monastery on the island.

There are included also informations about the hard times of the local school.

In the end you can learn about the writer Vladislav Vančura, who attended the school in Davle. I used mostly original sources and professional literature.