

Summary:

Main task of this work is to present life and work of important person of Czech culture and society at the end of the 19th century – Renáta Tyršová. The work presents the biography of this author including family relations. At the next part of the work is analyzed the work of Renáta Tyršová at the field of art criticism. At the end is described her work in context of art criticism history in Czech lands.