

Abstract

This thesis is dedicated to the case about deciding about places for Central American canal, how it was mentioned in speeches of american politics, histories and presidents. Main part is dedicated to these speeches in american second chamber and first annutal messages with taking into account historic affairs. Canal was a great problem of international politivity, so in another part of this thesis I mention a french participation in Panama region. There was a great reqirement for a success thought about Nicaragua path. This problem is mention in one special chapter.