

Abstract

In the bachelor work Media image of squatter in the Czech press I focus on imaging minority of squatters in July - August, 2009. In these months, the media reported about squatting in connection with the eviction of Prague villa Milada in Trója on 30th June 2009. I chose Czech print media as the subject of my research. I examine thematic focus of the studied articles, form of protruding actors and other essentials of researched texts by the method of content analysis. In the theoretical part I pursue the mechanism of media, imaging minorities and brief definition of squatting.