

 University of Roehampton
London

The Viva Progress Report /průběh obhajoby/

Programme: Erasmus Mundus MA/Mgr. in Special and Inclusive Education

Module: Dissertation

Module code: ERM030L003S

Student Name: Lenuta Vintila

Lenuta presented her research project using power point. First, Lenuta put her research project to a broader context of the reality in supporting people with intellectual disabilities in the Czech Republic with reference to policies being implemented in EU and nationally. Particular attention was paid to the alternative format Lenuta used for communication – interviews with informants with ID.

The presentation was structured logically. Follow up discussion was focused of representativity of the sample, summary of the research findings in terms of what Lenuta learnt from conducting the qualitative research strategy and recommendations for future research and practice.