

Abstract:

□ Title:

The project of educational cycling trails in Protected Landscape Area of Eagle mountains

□ Objective

The aim of this work is to create project of three cycling trails, with three degrees of difficulty in eagle mountains area. The trails will be shown in information brochure with photos and information about this area. The brochure will be available in tourist information centre and online on some web page.

□ Methods

Analyzes of existing trails in this area, searching for information about interesting places, history and geographical points. Consulting and verifying this information with people from Eagle mountains PLA (Protected Landscape Area) organization and interviewing locals about this area. Verifying trails by group of cyclists.

□ Results

The result of this thesis is a brochure with three bicycle educational trails in eagle mountains. The brochure contains maps, photos, cultural stops and other informatin about this area.

□ Key words:

Eagle mountains, educational trail, bicycling