

Abstract

This study is biography of Jiří Viktor Daneš (1880 – 1928). First chapter summarizes fundamental stages of his life (studies, First World War, diplomatic activity in Australia), his death and legacy. Second chapter is approaching his travelling with emphasis on big travels – to Java and Australia with Karel Domin (1909 – 1910) and his journey around the world (1920 – 1923). Last chapter approaches his scientific work in basic outline.