

ABSTRACT

The aim of this thesis is to introduce the personality of Zdeňka Šemberová, who lived in the years 1841 – 1912 in the context of the Czech women's movement. In the first part of the thesis is devoted to the development of the women's movement in Bohemia and to the important historical milestones that relate to this movement. The second part is devoted to the life of Zdeňka Šemberová, her family problems and her subjective view of the movement. It was drawn from her personal diary and correspondence.

This thesis describes the comparison of the life of Zdeňky Šemberová with the various stages of the Czech women's movement and her contacts with prominent figures of this movement.