

This thesis deals with the analysis of the current state of libraries in elementary and secondary schools in the Vysočina region. In the first part of the text outlines the basic problems of school libraries along with the characteristics of the region. The main part of this work is analysis of the state of libraries based on the survey. Personally visited libraries are closely described. The conclusion summarizes the survey results.