

Abstract

Title: Factors influencing performance of the basketball referee

Objectives: To map the biggest factors which are influencing performance of the basketball referee who controls the republic matches. Via questionnaire we try to find out which factors the most influencing performance of the basketball referee.

Methods: We used exploration method technique through an un-standard questionnaire with finished and open questions.

Results: The most important factors which are influencing basketball referee are: the importance of the match, score of the game, spectators, experiences, knowledge of the rules, fitness, coaches, actual and psychological situation. Out of these factors the performance of the referee the most influencing is experiences and at least is spectators. These factors significantly influencing performance of the referee.

Keywords: match, stress, practice, basketball rules, player, coach, aggression, fitness, experience