

My Bachelor's thesis deal with the role of a volunteer in Hospice and with motivation for volunteering there. It describes Hospice care, dying, palliative accompaniment in dying, volunteering in general, i.e. the topics everybody could be concerned in. And that is the reason I think that general public should be informed much more.