

The overall topic of the thesis issues in the field of movie-based and audiovisual education. Thesis describes history of cinematography, film and audio-visual education's goals, available schools, movie festivals and categorization by education level. Furthermore the thesis illustrates relationship between given subject and media-based education and researches media literacy. Practical part shows film and media based education in practice and describes children's interest in this area based on real results.