Teoretické, praktické a výzkumné aspekty homiletické komunikace.

Katolické a protestantské pojetí.

Theoretical, Practical and Research Aspects of Homiletic Communication.

Catholic and Protestant Approach.

The aim of this dissertation was to emphasize Christological, historical, psychological and rhetorical aspects of homiletic communication and the importance of its proper application in the mission of ministers of Christian Churches. The work outlines the homiletics in both Catholic and Protestant approaches. Part of the study included research via the homiletic questionnaire. The results lead to the conclusion that in the aspects that have been the subject of research in the Czech Republic, Germany and the USA, there are still statistically significant
