

Abstract

The purpose of my thesis is to analyze the legal regulation of legal responsibility for damages and compensation for damages, with special concern for health damages (damage to health). In the very near future, the biggest change in Czech civil law will come, and the comparison between contemporary legislation and the future legislation is also the reason for my research.

The thesis consists of 12 chapters including introduction and conclusion. Each chapter is dedicated to partial institutes of the regulation or to institutes connected with this regulation.
