

Summary:

The final bachelor paper deals with Global Education and its integration in different kinds of schools' curriculum. Therefore it is based on the definition of Global Education and its situation in the Czech Republic. In its research part I bring information on how the school staff managers are familiarized with this topic and whether they are involved somehow. The found out data bring advice for managers who are unfamiliar with above mentioned.