

Abstract

Main aim of the presented rigorous thesis is to describe legislation related to the Internet in Czech and Slovak Republics, european legislation and protection of distribution of work through the Internet. This thesis specifies process of creation of Internet network in context of the Internet history and its tools /webpages, forums, e-mail, torrents/, defines concept of copyright contravention and its regulation within international legislation, particular forms and methods of infringement on the Internet, propagation of multimedia works, responsibility relations liability for damages.