

Summary

This paper deals with the operators responsibility for damage caused by a motor vehicle in the current Civil Code and the new Civil Code, which will be effective from 1. 1. 2014. According to the always-study of the topic immediately point out the specific changes that occur due to the new regulation.

The first chapter deals with the importance of explaining the issue of damages in a social context. Furthermore, I point out its functions.

The second chapter deals with the definition of basic concepts related to this problem. Define who or what is motor vehicle damage and operator. Interpret different kinds of operators of vehicles, when their resolution is critical consequences for the operator is obliged to pay damages.

The third chapter explains the general provisions on liability for damage. It also deals with the inclusion of liability in the Code civil law.

The fourth chapter deals with a thorough explanation then specific responsibility for damage caused by vehicles. Interprets the scope of this responsibility, the possibilities of the operator himself from the obligation to pay compensation and liability insurance for damage caused by the operation of motor vehicles.

The fifth chapter is intended to familiarize the reader with the possibilities of compensation methods, the content of compensation and damages. Especially with the amount of compensation specified by current legislation and major changes in the organization of a new Civil Code.

The sixth chapter shows the changes that brings new Civil Code. Shows in particular that the laws will need to change in order to be consistent with the new Civil Code, but also deals with the economic side of things.

Conclusions can be found in the seventh chapter. Again briefly summarizes the various changes which have already been given for each chapter and allow you to assess their implications for the future of the company and individuals with regard to the fact that it is the future steps of the company will be what will influence whether this change will be successful or not.