

Průběh obhajoby:

First the supervisor introduced the student, who then presented main arguments of her thesis. Subsequently both reporters and the supervisor presented their generally positive reviews. All reporters appreciated originality of the research and positively evaluated that the candidate managed to succinctly capture controversial role of the "Skopje 2014 project" in the construction of national identity. Afterwards the student responded to major critical remarks raised by the reporters concerning particularly theoretical and methodological issues.