

Abstract

Title: The game analysis of the performance of the creative players in professional football.

Objectives: The aim of the work is to analyse the success of creative players in professional football. The study of the literature to find out the requirements for the exercise of creative players and we will analyze the success by the facts on the basis of indirect observations of gaming performance in the selected master games. Findings will evaluate the application and subsequently we will formulate specific recommendations for the practice.

Methods: We carry out analysis method of indirect observations with the help of videos of selected events and subsequent analysis.

Results: Analysis of selected game actions in the attack phase of the game in the middle of the center offensive player, and their success.

Keywords: Football, the offensive phase of the game, individual game performance, creativity in football, the disposition of the players on the field, diagnostics in football.