

This bachelor thesis aims to introduce a memorial book of the chapel of the castle Sychrov (Liber memorabilium arcis Sichrov = Memorabilienbuch des Schlosses Sichrow), which was created in year 1862. The memorial book was written between years 1862–1950 (the memorial book consisting of three volumes, special attention is dedicated to the establishing of the memorial book and the first volume written up to year 1867). The creation of the memorial book was commanded by Sychrov owner Kamil Rohan. The command was fulfilled by beneficed chaplain Josef Němeček and his successors. In this thesis there is described the creation of the memorial book, strong connection to the memorial book of the castle (Gedenkbuch des Schlosses Sichrow) and for better understanding of creation, there is described position of Sychrov chaplain with short Němeček biography. Two general chapters Rohans and Sychrov are written with using of content of the memorial book of the chapel. As an addendum, the first memorial book is edited in in brief regesta format in this thesis.
