

Abstract

The bachelor thesis deals with the topic of landscape in a city. It starts with the definition of the terms "landscape" and "city" and subsequently analysis the different forms of landscape and its interpretations in the fine arts, specifically in painting. Towards the end the work gradually concentrates more on the tower block housing estates of the city. In the final part it presents an extracurricular project on the topic Landscape in a city.