

Abstract

Topic of this work is Czechoslovakia and Paneuropa union in 1923-1930. The work is focused on development of Paneuropa Union in Czechoslovakia in twenties. It concentrates on research of ideas source, process of genesis and development of this movement. It also does not forget to remember founder of Paneuropa union Richard Coudenhove-Kalergi. The work reflects position of important figures of Czechoslovakia Republic and their opinions on United States of Europa. At the same time work briefly records initiative took by France prime minister Aristide Briand. The result of this work should be an answer to question what attitude was of Czechoslovakia politics toward Coudenhoves ideas, mainly about foreign and economics politics. Also what attitude adopted top political representatives of Czechoslovakia – T. G. Masaryk, E. Beneš, R. Hotowetz and others? Second question is if the Czechoslovakia politics was influenced by Coudenhove-Kalergis ideas and on the other was around. Authoress also focused on question if leading Czechoslovakian politics supports this movement and if they had expressed sympathies to this movement. Last task this work is to summarize development of Czechoslovakian branch of Paneuropa Union, its agreement and disagreement with Coudenhoves ideas.
