

Abstract

Bachelor thesis is analysing of British anti-Semitism between the years 1881-1914. Thesis is focused on the status of Jews in the Great Britain before the year 1881 and is focused mainly on the process of Jewish emancipation. Next part is analysing the change of their social status as consequence of the immigration of Jews from the Eastern Europe beginning right in the 1880s. The last chapter is explaining British anti-Semitism in consequences of state and foreign politics of Great Britain, mainly during the second Boer war.