

Summary:

The goal of the thesis is to create an educational project for pupils of 4th and 5th grade of primary school which introduces them to Hosptial Kuks – a unique Baroque monument in Eastern Bohemia.

The main aim of the project is to support students' social abilities and field knowledge with the original intention of the founder – social care in the 18th century; students then develop their own foundation based on the gained information and knowledge.