

The Thesis deals with development of the specific educational centre for free time activities. The Theory part focuses first on the Pyramid of vitality and the Pyramid of culture explaining their nature. Next, Educational centres for free time activities are dealt with. The Practical part is devoted to how the Educational centres realize individual parts of the Pyramids. Based on the Theory part, outputs of questionnaires and experience of the Heads of the centres, instructions for keeping the centres alive and prosperous were suggested.