

PRIMOVÁ, A. Photography as a game with (not only) a graphic element. [Bachelor's thesis] Charles University in Prague, Faculty of Education, Department of Art. Prague, 2014, 80 p.

ANOTATION

The subject of this bachelor's thesis is to look at the complex of image and photography and their role as a graphic element. It's dedicating mostly to collage techniques, whose authors are chosen from the Czech art in the early 20th century. The following section presents the work of contemporary artists. Theoretical principles discussed in the work are converted into art award for students of Secondary Vocational School of Education and Higher Vocational School of Education and Social Sciences. All of which are also used in the practical part of the thesis.

Key words: photography, graphic element, collage, image, world, art education