

ABSTRACT

Chiral stationary phase based on R-naphtylethyl derivatized cyclofructan was used for separation of tryptophan derivatives. In normal mode were tested different compositions of mobile phase and minorite modifiers. The aim of this work was to find suitable separation conditions.