ANNOTATION

The bachelor thesis focuses on the analysis of diplomatic relations between Czechoslovakia and Iraq during the rule of the Hashemite dynasty, especially the emergence of the Czechoslovak embassy in Baghdad. Much of the work will discuss the activities of Vlasta Kálalová - Di Lotti who contributed enormously to the good relations between the two countries.