

ABSTRACT

The content of this thesis is aimed toward the application of formal educational programs to extra curricular facilities for preschool aged children. The research part focuses on the current state in the development of aesthetic education in extra curricular facilities for children in the city of Prague. The methodological project integrates music with other artistic and non-artistic activities, and is based on the area in the Framework of Education Program called, „Child and the World“.