

Annotation

This Bachelor's work deals with the utilization of the literary genre of fairytales, in free time activities in the after school club. In the theoretical part, the basic concepts are stated: fairy tale, children's literature, reader literacy, characteristics of the young school age, free time activities in the after school club. In the practical part, there is a description of a project tested in practice in a section of the after school club. The aim of this work was not only to awaken the interest of the pupil in reading, but even to show, that fairy tales develop the personality of children, imagination and can help us during solving educational problems.