Annotation

The main goal of this bachelor thesis is to survey and describe the current state of the drugs issue in Czech prison’s system based on the experiences of prisoners. The theoretical part is based on literature research and there are described Prison Service of the Czech Republic, problems of addictive substances in prisons systems and possibilities of addiction treatment in prisons. In empirical part is quantitative research which using a questionnaire. In the end of empirical part are described possibilities of prevalence of drugs and their penetration into prisons in Czech Republic. I tried to described current overview about drugs in Czech prisons in my bachelor thesis.